HANDCRAFTED EMPORIA

There is plenty to love about Emporia's local scene. With locally made brews and wines, chocolates and coffees, and unique artisan goods and souvenirs, living like a local has never been so good.

CRAFT BEERS

Emporia's first brewery since prohibition, Radius Brewing Co., has a rotating set of craft beers on tap. Voted the best brewery in Kansas by Yahoo Travel, you can see the award-winning beer being brewed right in the middle of the dining room. The kitchen serves up brick oven pizzas, unique sandwiches and a tantalizing rotating chef's menu.

MEMORABLE EXPERIENCES

Whether you love to shop or simply appreciate an experience you can't find just anywhere, we have you covered. Enjoy browsing though a one-of-a-kind farm and ranch store and a market where the smokehouse meats are made locally.

WESTERN AND MORE

Bluestem Farm and Ranch Supply is an Emporia tradition. You can spend hours browsing the aisles of this 60,000 sq.ft. family-owned store that has just about anything you may need for your farm or home. Check out the wall of jeans (8,000 pairs), visit with area farmers and ranchers and enjoy complimentary coffee and tea daily and popcorn on Saturdays.

365 DAYS OF FUN

Why should the pros have all the fun? Come test yourself on the same courses and trails used in epic events like the Glass Blown Open and the Dirty Kanza.

EMPORIA KNOWS DISC GOLF

Emporia might not have invented disc golf, but we've definitely perfected it. Whether you are an expert practicing for the world's largest disc golf tournament, the Glass Blown Open, a beginner spending an afternoon with friends surrounded by our beautiful parks, or a shopper browsing the Dynamic Discs store, Emporia is the place to tee off and have fun. The inaugural PDGA Junior Disc Golf World Championships will be held here in July 2018, 2019 and 2020. Emporia knows disc golf!

GRAVEL GRINDING CAPITAL OF THE WORLD

Emporia is the epicenter of the gravel cycling world. Explore hundreds of miles of roads and trails in the epic Flint Hills. Every year, thousands of endurance cyclists test themselves in one of the last remaining Tallgrass Prairies in North America and enjoy breathtaking scenery, solitude and pure freedom. Ride the routes of the Dirty Kanza—the world's premiere endurance gravel road race. Prepare to be amazed.
